- ii. Head of Department (HoD) will be the Convener of the committee.

Terms of References (ToRs):

3. Terms of References (ToRs) of all Departmental Academics Regulatory Committees will be as follow:

- i. The committee will plan strategies and formulate procedures for improving the quality of education in the department.
- ii. The committee should have its meeting on fortnightly basis to review the academic progress of the department.
- iii. Fortnightly Review Report (FRR) Proforma (Annex-A) will be presented in the meeting and deliberated upon in detail. Decisions / deliberations of the meeting will be documented and circulated to all concerned as Minutes of the Meeting.
- iv. Any discrepancy noticed while reviewing the FRR will be properly addressed and remedial / disciplinary measures, as deemed necessary, will be taken by the concerned HOD.
- v. Implementation status on the decisions taken in previous meeting of DARC will be presented in each meeting of DARC.
- vi. The committee will have a meeting with all the faculty members of the department at least twice in a semester.

vii. The Committee will be responsible to perform the following specific functions:

a. Qualitative Academic Monitoring:

DARC will ensure efficient and effective utilization of all available resources and implementation of academic regulations, in the department. It will be the responsibility of DARC to monitor all qualitative academic functions of the department. Feedback system should be established in such a way that real time feedback regarding each faculty member should be available. The DARC will review Qualitative Academic Progress of the department on regular basis and recommend / initiate corrective measures, when and where deemed necessary.

Standardization and quality of quizzes, assignments, sessional and final papers as well as marking of papers will be ensured by DARC.

DARC will be responsible for implementation of Scheme of Studies and its continuous monitoring.

b. Quantitative Academic Monitoring:

Minimum number of lectures, course coverage, quizzes and assignments, sessional and other required information will be collected from all faculty members on fortnight basis and depicted on FRR on regular basis.

Pre-sessional and Pre-final special meetings of DARC will be called and required information on related proforma (Annex-B) will be presented in the meeting after getting required information from all faculty members / CUOnline. Any short fall reported at this level will be countered with appropriate solution, immediately.

A special meeting of DARC will be called immediately after the results submission date and results of first, second sessional and terminal examination should also be presented on related proforma (Annex-C) in DARC meeting. The results of each course will be analyzed in detail and any discrepancy will be dealt with appropriate action.

c. Course Contents:

Course contents will be reviewed and revised on regular basis to make it more focused towards its objective and compatible with the international standards. Committee will have frequent meetings with concerned faculty members to discuss the changes required in the course contents. In case of change required in the curriculum of any program, the same will be forwarded to concerned forums for the approval and further implementation.

d. Course Allocation:

Course allocations will be made by DARC considering the competency and experience of the faculty members in the specific
